

Stadefaeste Carol

Our King went forth to Rowany to hold his court and there tourney
And it pleased our gracious Queen in grand attire to be seen Our King rode on to Innilgard to joust and so at Southron Gaard
And Aneala

Our King progressed to Mordenvale for sport and came home whole and hale And it pleased his lady fair to praisen scholars everywhere Our King set out with sword and shield, in Riverhaven held the field And St Florian de la Riviere

Our King went fourth to fight some more:
Ildhafn, Stormhold, Ynis Fawr
And it pleased Her Majesty to then devise well privily Our King went forth to every place, so too his harness just in case
And Politarchopolis
