

A DISPUTATIO.

Know ye that on Thursday e'en, from 8 of the clock within the Arts & Sciences Lodge shall be held
A DISPUTATIO to ask:

What is the Most Important virtue a peer can have & why?

ALL persons are welcome to hear the assembled Peerage discourse on which virtue they champion. And also the populace will be invited to indicate which virtue they consider the most important, based on the arguments presented.

The remainder of the evening will be spent in more informal discussion, accompanied by light refreshments, as considered mete for the vigil of Katherine Kerr on the eve of her being admitted to the Order of the Laurel. Come one, come all.
